

29th Kumamoto National Hōgaku Competition: In Commemoration of Nagatani Kengyō

Application Guidelines

The Kumamoto National Hōgaku Competition was instituted to celebrate the life and work of Nagatani Yukiteru (1842-1920), a figure of peerless eminence in the musical world of Jiuta-shamisen, with the aim of contributing to the transmission and development of Japan's illustrious legacy of music for traditional instruments (hōgaku). By providing gifted hōgaku performers with the opportunity to display and develop their skill and artistry, this competition is intended to spur on the development of Japanese traditional music for a new era.

1. Categories

- (1) Koto
- (2) Flutes (shakuhachi, etc.)
- (3) Biwa
- (4) Shamisen and kokyū
- (5) Ensemble (sankyoku, etc.; max. 5 players)

All categories apply to traditional Japanese instruments. Categories (1) to (4) are for solo performance. Accompanists may be used but only the applicant will be judged. Applications in Category (5) for ensemble performance (sankyoku, etc.) should involve participation of ensembles consisting of any of the instruments in Categories (1) to (4) or of the same instrument.

2. Eligibility

The competition is open to anyone wishing to pursue a career in Japanese traditional music, irrespective of age, nationality and professional or amateur status.

3. How to apply

Having prepared Items (1) and (2) below, please submit the completed application form, which is accessible either on the website or by using the QR code. If two or more players are to perform, please also send the score (3) of the piece to our office.

Application form

<https://forms.gle/A3atpcSfyzT2RNJ7>

(1) A recording of the applicant's performance lasting no more than four minutes should be submitted in WAV or MP3 format. Please check the state of the recording beforehand, since recordings of inferior quality will not be considered.

(2) Copy of an arrangement authorisation certificate (in the case of excerpts or arrangements)

If a piece is to be performed in the form of an excerpt or arrangement, authorisation must be obtained from the copyright-holder or from the publisher in the case of a published score. If not in possession of the prescribed form, an authorisation certificate may be downloaded from the competition website.

(3) Musical notation (in all categories required only when a performance is to be given by two or more players)

Original scores (photocopies not acceptable) should be submitted with clear indication of which sections of the score are to be performed and/or omitted.

NB: Music CDs and scores, etc. submitted by the applicant will not be returned. Use of photocopies is prohibited.

- Address for submission:

Office of the Kumamoto Dai Hōgokusai Executive Committee, Civic Auditorium Sears Home Yume Hall, 1-3 Sakura-machi, Chuo-ku, Kumamoto City, Kumamoto Prefecture 860-0805

4. Application fee

¥6,000 (under no circumstances to be refunded)

Payment should be made employing either of the following methods.

1) Transfer to the following bank account:

Ordinary deposit account, no. 3100873, at Nanaichihachi Branch, Yucho Bank in the name of Kumamoto Dai Hōgakusai Executive Committee
(Transfer charges to be borne by the applicant)

2) Transfer to the following PayPal account:

Account: @kumahou (Kumamoto Dai Hōgakusai Executive Committee)

https://paypal.me/kumahou?country.x=JP&locale.x=ja_JP

(The full name of the applicant should be attached to the message. Charges to be borne by the applicant)

5. Deadline for applications

Wednesday, January 31, 2024

6. Announcement of successful applicants

Participants in the competition will be determined following a preliminary examination of the submitted materials and will be notified early in March.

7. Main competition

Performances in the koto, shakuhachi and flute, biwa, shamisen and kokyū, and ensemble categories will be given at the Civic Auditorium Sears Home Yume Hall in Kumamoto City on Sunday, June 9, 2024. Individual performances should last no more than five minutes and feature the same piece as that performed for the preliminary examination.

8. Judges

- Soh Fujimoto (traditional music producer)
- Mari Kanō (Japanese music researcher)
- Haruko Komoda (Professor, Musashino Academia Musicae)
- Mihoko Nogawa (Japanese music researcher; Lecturer, Tokyo University of the Arts)
- Keizō Ideta (composer and conductor; Dean, Heisei College of Music)

9. Prizes

- Grand Prix, Prize of the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports Science and Technology: ¥500,000 (one individual or ensemble)
- Prize for Excellence: ¥200,000 (three individuals or ensembles)
- Encouragement Prize: ¥100,000 (four individuals or ensembles)

NB: A single certificate of commendation will be issued in the case of an award being given to applicants in the ensemble category.

10. Sponsor

Kumamoto Dai Hōgokusai Executive Committee (Kumamoto City, Kumamoto Prefecture Cultural Association, Kumamoto Nichinichi Shimbun-sha)

11. Enquiries and applications

Office of the Kumamoto Dai Hōgokusai Executive Committee, Civic Auditorium Sears Home Yume Hall, 1-3 Sakura-machi, Chuo-ku, Kumamoto City, Kumamoto Prefecture 860-0805 (closed on the first and third Mondays of each month)

Tel: 096-355-5235 Fax: 096-355-5239

Email: k-hougokusai@kc-sks.jp

Website: <http://www.kumahou.com/>